Intention to Designate a Property / Ontario Heritage Act

The Council of the City of Markham intends to designate the following property for reasons of cultural heritage value or interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18, Part IV:

Henry and Agnes Rowed House
7871 Ninth Line
Markham, ON

The Henry and Agnes Rowed House is a modest frame dwelling designed for a village setting to meet the needs of a tradesman or labourer. It is a representative example of a mid-nineteenth century worker's cottage in frame, with its design reflecting the vernacular Georgian architectural tradition. The Henry and Agnes Rowed House has historical value or associative value as it represents the theme of urban development, specifically the nineteenth century development of the historic hamlet of Sparta/Box Grove around a cluster of industries near the crossroads of Fourteenth Avenue and Ninth Line. Further, the property has contextual value as one of a grouping of nineteenth century buildings that are important in defining, maintaining and supporting the character of the historic crossroads hamlet of Box Grove.
